When Our Paintings Become Problem Children

October 10, 2022 @ 11:30 am to 1:00 pm at DEGALLERY

Problem Children...a powerpoint presentation about the different stages of our paintings.

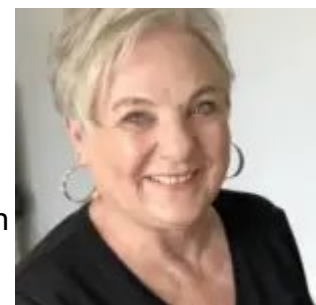

When it comes to interacting with children, we may experience a multitude of emotions.

Love, amazement, disappointment, anger, frustration, helplessness...among others.

According to our presenter, Sue Bishop, "This is a natural occurrence. If we are honest with ourselves, we have the same emotions when it comes to our art work. Let us discuss what we can do when our paintings turn into Problem Children."

About The Instructor:

Sue Bishop pursued formal art training at East Texas State University where she received her Bachelor of Science in Education and Art. After graduation, she taught in the public school system for many years. She was awarded the signature membership to the Texas Watercolor Society and an award of excellence in the Manhattan Arts International Competition. Presently, Sue conducts workshops throughout the state and teaches art in Georgetown.

Agenda:

11:30-Noon: Eat and socialize, brief VAS business update (pot luck lunch)

Noon-1pm: featured presentation
