May Demo: Hannele Rubin (Nel)

Silk painting will be demonstrated by Hannele at the May meeting. A lifelong doodler and crafter, Hannele Rubin completed classes in various media, including painting in watercolors and acrylics and linocut and monoprinting. In 2015, when her son's bar mitzvah was approaching, she took up silk painting in order to create a Tallis, or prayer shawl, that would include images that were meaningful to him.

First Saturday Art Market

Degallery is sponsoring a monthly outdoor art sale on the first Saturday of every month. The Visual Art Society normally has two tents set to allow our members ample space for selling their creations. The next event is May 1st.

Any member in good standing can bring art to sell- 80% of the sale price goes to the artist and VAS takes care of the sales tax so you don't have to. We ask that you sign up so we know how many artists/items we need room for.
